

Monthly clean-up day set for Kaufman county residents

HERALD STAFF REPORT

Kaufman county's monthly clean-up day is set for Sept. 10 from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. at the Kaufman Convenience Station located at 701 Alton St. in Kaufman. Items taken for free from Kaufman County residents during the clean-up event are mattresses, furniture, appliances, trash, and recyclables. No construction debris, dump trailers, enclosed or cattle trailers are allowed.

Kaufman Convenience Station will also be open for you to bring items that are not being collected at the free event. Check out www.kaufmancounty.net for regular pricing. Coupons will need to be purchased by Friday at 4:30 p.m. at the Courthouse Annex located at 100 N. Washington in Kaufman.

Items that can be collected for a charge on the day of the event are tires, TVs, computers, microwaves, latex paint, pesticide containers, and hazardous household waste. Check www.blackjackdisposal.com for pricing.

Items that will not be accepted are barbed wire, bricks, concrete, construction materials, rock, roofing shingles, brush, boats, travel trailers, and dead animals of any kind.

Proof of residence will be required. A driver's license or water bill will be accepted.
